

Allowing Sinclair Broadcasting to air their Anti Kerry documentary would be astonishing. From what I have heard, the documentary is far fetched and very biased. The people in a democracy look to the media for un biased information, to make informed decisions. Allowing this to air would extremely hinder that process.